

Pearl Dining is a prime example of traditional Cantonese cuisine infused with innovative native Australian elements.

We apply the same approach to crafting our wine and beverage menus. Our wine list showcases renowned Australian producers alongside emerging talents, young guns of wine and innovative winemakers from around the world.

We pay special attention to wines that complement our Cantonese menu.

Similarly, our cocktails offer a blend of classic favorites and inventive twists, featuring a vibrant mix of colors, flavors, and imagination.

PEARL'S PREMIUM COCKTAIL

Hidden Dragon

28

Patron Reposado infused with 5 spice and Pineapple, Campari, Antica Formula Sweet Vermouth

The Hidden Dragon, named after the film “Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon” is a spiced pineapple cocktail, enshrouded in smoke, presenting like a dragon appearing from it’s cave. The Hidden Dragon has a pineapple infused tequila that is made in-house with 5-spice and clove. Refreshing and complex, this cocktail is perfect for any time of the day.

SAKE

90ML / 180ML / 720ML

Houraisen Bi Junmai Daiginjo, 45%, Aichi

42 / 84 / 330

This very elegant style of Junmai Daiginjo, is one of Houraisen's flagship Sake's. Bi translates as Beauty and this tank matured Sake shows a more rounded, mellow character. Sweeter fruits and gentle acidity help this complex and subtly beautiful Sake match with Steamed shellfish, Sashimi and other lighter-styled dishes.

Dassai '39' Junmai Daiginjo, 39%, Yamaguchi

23 / 46 / 180

Brewed by Asahi Shuzo in Yamaguchi Prefecture, Dassai takes a modernist, high quality approach to Junmai Daiginjo Sake using only Yamada Nishiki rice.

The Crisp taste of Dassai is elegant and regal, inviting comparisons to white wine. Wild notes and aromas of tropical fruits as well as a touch of lemon zest. A luscious and juicy front palate materializes into well-ripened fruit with an additional hint of sweetness, evolving in the mouth to fresher notes of Japanese cantaloupe. To be appreciated by itself or accompanying the roasted pork belly, the wagyu tri tip or the lobster.

Dewazakura Saku Sparkling Junmai Sake, 65%, Yamagata

250ml / 65

Dewazakura translates to 'cherry blossom' in the old dialect of the area. Their house style is lifted and aromatic and this very light, elegant style with gentle notes of herb and a delicate, dry finish. This sparkling style is well suited to lighter entrees, raw and delicate flavours.

Fukuju Junmai Ginjo, 60%, Nada, Hyogo

26 / 52 / 205

The Blue bottle helps protect this Sake from UV light. This Sake this was served at the Nobel Peace Prize winners' dinner. Made from 100% from rice of the area, the very low fermentation temperatures used when making this Sake showcase the aromatic style and balance, typical of Fukuju. This Sake shows steamed rice and apricot aromas, some umami and acidity that lead to a clean dry finish. Great with grilled dishes.

A wonderful balance between the sweetness and clean acidity, with a very long finish.

SAKE

90ML / 180ML / 720ML

Tengumai Yamahai Jikomi Junmai, 75%, Ishikawa

19 / 38 / 147

Tengumai translates (roughly) as 'dancing-long-nosed-goblin' and Yamahai and Jikomi refer to the traditional method used to make this Sake.

This Sake is matured for more than 12 months show hints of 'Koshu' (age) with notes of mushroom.

It has pale golden colour, with spicy aromas. Rich and complex on the palate, with a crisp long finish.

Would pair well with grilled fish, scallops, BBQ duck, chicken or lamb or strong miso or soy sauce flavoured dishes.

Kenbishi Kuromatsu, 70%, Nada/ Hyogo

28 / 55 / 223

Served warm, unless request otherwise

This is the 4th oldest brewery in Japan and began producing Sake during the 'infamous' Samurai century in 1508, it could be considered a 'time-capsule'.

It is a classic style Sake is a blend of 1 – 4 yr old Sake, has a full flavour with good Umami and acidity and is light golden colour.

It has beautifully complex aroma with hints of mushroom, cheese and crushed nuts.

The texture is creamy and give a nice spice. When this Sake is served warm, the texture become soft and mild.

Umami with sweetness and smooth and mild acidity.

It would pair well with Grilled fish, BBQ duck, chicken or lamb. Strong miso or soy sauce flavoured dishes such as teriyaki, sukiyaki or miso hot pot.

Tsukinokatzura Vintage Umeshu with Gold Leaf, Kyoto

50ml / 62

This very limited and very elegant-style Sake is made by infusing Ume with Tsukinokatsura use their flagship Junmai Ginjo 'Yanagi'.

It is matured for 3 years in a cool, dark part of the brewery to allow the flavours to blend perfectly.

It is a dark pinkish colour showing a hint of age, and is very aromatic with citrusy sweetness.

It is medium bodied with rich texture with a wonderful balance between the sweetness and clean acidity, with a very long finish. The gold leaf is a bonus!
